

I am concerned about potential interference to already established modes. As a person involved in emergency service, we should be assured in advance with unbiased testing that no harmful effects will occur to existing radio communications.